

Report of Operative G T Purdy

New Brunswick, N.J.
Sept. 27th, 1926

Interview with: MR.. MCCORMICK, Steward at Rutgers College
MR. THOMAS, Cook " " "

Operative interviewed Mr. McCormick, the Steward at Rutgers College Mess Hall in reference to Jane Gibson collecting the garbage at the college. He stated that she collected the garbage at this College from the kitchen for two seasons, when the office received an offer of $50. from a man for the privilege of taking the garbage and they accepted the offer. Mrs. Gibson was then told by Mr. McCormick not to come for the garbage any more as they were going to let another man take it away. Mr. McCormick stated that Mrs. Gibson became very angry over it and later went to the office of the College and informed them there that she had been paying Mr. McCormick for the permission to take the garbage away. She claimed that she paid him $100. Mr. McCormick stated that this is not the truth, as she never paid him one cent. Mr. McCormick stated that it put him in bad and nearly cost him his job.

Mr. McCormick then introduced me to the cook, Mr. Thomas, who stated that Mrs. Gibson never paid him any money and that he had very little to say to her at all.

Mr. McCormick further stated that he would be glad to take the stand in Court to prove that this Gibson woman is a liar and that he will help the defense at any time to prove this woman is a liar.

Respectfully submitted:
